

Date	Exams/Assess	Units
1/9/25		Introduction to CoRE To understand what a 'worldview' is, recognize that everyone has one, and explore how different 'worldview lenses' influence how people interpret the world and make decisions.
8/9/25
15/9/25
22/9/25
29/9/25
6/10/25		Unit 1 – Animal Testing - Understand what animal testing is and why it is used - Begin to consider ethical questions about the treatment of animals - Understand a range of Christian perspectives on animal testing. - Explore how Christian beliefs about stewardship and dominion impact views
13/10/25
20/10/25
3/11/25
10/11/25		Medical Ethics and Euthanasia - Define what is meant by medical ethics. - Identify and explain at least three ethical issues in modern medicine. - Explore how different religious and non-religious views influence ethical decisions in medicine. - Develop your own views on a medical ethical dilemma, using reasoned
17/11/25
24/11/25
1/12/25
8/12/25
15/12/25		Religion and Science - To consider what has been, and continues to be, the impact of religion on science - To explore how religious ethics shape opinions on contemporary scientific issues, such as genetic engineering, AI and robots - To assess whether science has replaced religion
5/1/26
12/1/26
19/1/26
26/1/26
2/2/26		Religion, Conflict and Forgiveness - To understand what is meant by the terms forgiveness and reconciliation - To consider the reasons why it can be difficult to forgive as well as the benefits of forgiveness - To explore people's personal experiences of forgiveness - To investigate religious teachings in relation to forgiveness
9/2/26
23/2/26
2/3/26
9/3/26
16/3/26		Good and Evil - To understand how we decide what is good and what is bad - To consider how different worldviews address the issues of good and evil - To explore whether good can come from evil
23/3/26
30/3/26
20/4/26
27/4/26
4/5/26		Religion and the Media - To evaluate how religious characters and issues are portrayed in the media - To consider whether it is acceptable to use religious characters as a source of comedy - To Analyse whether the media should avoid expressing potentially offensive views
11/5/26
18/5/26
1/6/26
8/6/26
15/6/26
22/6/26
29/6/26
6/7/26
13/7/26		